1 Premium Finance ("USPF"), and approving the terms thereof. The Court has reviewed the files and
2 records herein, including the Declaration of Dan Payne filed in support of the Motion, and it is hereby
3

4 ORDERED as follows:

- 5       1. The Motion is granted;
6       2. Pursuant to Section 364 (c) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor is authorized to enter
7 into the Agreement;
8       3. The Debtor is hereby directed to pay USPF all sums due pursuant to the Agreement;
9       4. That the full rights of USPF pursuant to the Agreement and controlling state law be and
10 the sums hereby are fully preserved and protected and are and shall remain unimpaired by the pendency
11 of the bankruptcy case or any subsequent conversion of this proceeding to a Chapter 7 or any subsequent
12 appointment of a trustee;
13
14       5. In the event that the Debtor defaults upon any of the terms of the Agreement, USPF
15 may exercise such rights as it may otherwise have under state law, but for the pendency of this
16 proceeding and, without the necessity of further application to this Court, cancel all insurance
17 policies listed on the Agreement or any amendment thereto, and receive and apply all unearned
18 insurance premiums to the account of the Debtor. In the event that, after such application of 19 unearned premiums, any sums still remain due to USPF pursuant to the Agreement, such 20 deficiency shall be deemed an administrative expense of the estate.
21       6. This Order shall be effective as of the date of entry by the Court.
